Write

- Journal about your day.
- Read a poem then write your own in a similar style.
- Write a letter to a friend, family member, author, or someone else you admire.
- Cut out words from newspaper or magazines to compose a cut-up story or poem.
- Write a book review. What did you like or not like? Could you relate to any of the characters? Would you recommend it to a friend?

Music

- Put on a music show for your family and friends.
- Make up a song. You could write new words for a familiar tune or make something totally unique.
- Draw what you hear: Listen to some music (any kind will do) and draw what you hear.
- Interview an adult about their favorite music from when they were your age.
- Attend a music program or concert at the library or elsewhere. See what's happening at the library at caryllibrary.org/programs.

Play

- Have a dance party! Put on some music and dance!
- Explore Lexington and walk an ACROSS Lexington trail. Visit lexingtonma.gov/222/ACROSS-Lexington for maps and information.
- Go to a park or play in your backyard, but have some fun playing outside!
- Do a puzzle or play a card game or board game.
- Gather some friends and play classic outdoor games such as Simon Says, Mother May I?, Red Rover, Tag, Capture the Flag, or Kickball.

Explore

- Collect and classify items from nature such as rocks, shells, leaves, or bugs.
- Fold origami. Look for books in j736.982.
- Bake for someone. For some fun new recipes check out the books in j641.865.
- Have a scavenger hunt. Create one for your younger siblings or for your friends or ask a grown up to create one for you!
- Observe nature. Learn to identify plants, animals, or constellations you see on a walk or in your backyard. Find field guides in the j500s.

Create

- Make a collage or mosaic with cut paper or found objects.
- Make a puppet and put on a show. Try something as simple as a paper bag puppet or as elaborate as a marionette!
- Get messy and build a sand castle or mud pie. Decorate with natural items such as shells, flowers, sticks, and rocks.
- Draw a map of your neighborhood. Be sure to include your house and any notable landmarks!
- Make a life-size version of you! Have someone trace around you on a large sheet of paper. Color in the outline, adding your face and clothes.
